Hair Extensions After Care

Now that you have that beautiful long thick hair you have always wanted, here are a few things you need to know! Your new hair will last between 6-12 months. The exact time will depend on you and how you care for them. Following the below guidelines will help to ensure that you get the maximum usage of your extensions. It is very important to use proper products. I recommend all Oribe products or the J Beverly Hills Platinum Line. DO NOT use cheap products as they are not good for any type of hair. Regular maintenance appointments every 6-8 weeks will keep your extensions looking their best. You must be prepared to spend a longer period of time styling your hair now that you have hair extensions. They take more time and effort and will need to be looked after correctly to prolong the life of your new hair. But I promise it is worth the extra time and effort.

Regular Maintenance

Wash and condition your hair extensions as directed by your stylist with a moisturizing shampoo or conditioner. Let the conditioner sit and soak into the extensions before rinsing. To lock in moisture and to ensure your hair extensions are truly nourished, apply a leave in conditioner after every time you wash it. Keep hair protected from heated tools by using a heat protectant. Spray on both dry and wet hair extensions. To restore shine and softness, gently comb through wet hair focusing on the length and the ends. Do this with a wet and dry brush.

Brushing and Sleeping

The extensions are attached to your natural hair and therefore pulling them can result in pulling out your natural hair. Start by brushing your hair from the bottom and then work your way up slowly to the top. Please make sure you are using a professional extension brush to avoid breakage and damage to your own hair. The Bello Haven Hair Extension Brushes have been designed especially for all types of hair extensions. Never go to sleep with wet hair and always make sure your extensions are completely dry to avoid tangling. When sleeping, braid your hair extensions which also helps to avoid tangling and prevents the cuticles from rubbing together.
